YOUR TASKS:

- Explore the theme of the story
- Compare the world of the book with your life
- Find connections between the story and other works

1 Look at the list of themes below. Which themes are present in the story?

- Everyday life
- Environment
- Friendship
- Family
- Food
- Free time
- Nature
- Peace and war
- School
- Sports

2 Explore how the theme of the story is present in your life.

First think about simple questions. For example, if the theme in the story is School, you can answer these questions first: What do they learn at school? How do they go to school? What sports do they do?

• How are other themes relevant in your life?

For example, popular themes are friendship and the environment. Can you think of other important themes?

3 Explore how the theme of the story is present in other works.

- Are there any other stories in which the theme is very similar?
- Are there any films, songs or pictures that the story makes you think of?
